

True democracy depends on citizens being able to hear and express a variety of views. Congress is supposed to prevent monopolies and monopolization of media ownership is very troubling to me.